Dear Portia,

Knowing that you are interested in Chinese culture, I'm writing to recommend to you a school-based course —“Chinese Tea Culture”.

Nowadays, tea, whether at the tea house or at home, is playing an important role in people's life. Taking the course, you'll learn about the varieties of tea and its benefits; at the same time, you will be exposed to its history and culture. In addition, some professionals will give tea art performances on the spot. And more good news, this course will be offered by Professor Wang, who is a well-known specialist in the field. Lessons will be given from 4:00 pm to 5:00 pm every Friday in the lecture hall.

I hope you will love the course and it will further your study of Chinese culture.

Yours

Li Hua

M: Excuse me, Madam. My flight is BA6520. Is this my gate?

W: That's right. Please show your ticket and ID card.

Text 2

M: Is tomorrow your birthday, Juliet?

W: No, four days away. It's March 28 today.

M: Oh, sorry. I remember it now.

Text 3

M: Hi, Jenny. You look so angry! What's the matter?

W: My friend made a promise. He said he would pay for the broken ball. But he hasn't yet.

Text 4

W: I hope the weekend will be nice for a picnic.

M: But the weather report says it will rain. I have to play computer games at home.

W: That's terrible. Well, I'll play table tennis.

Text 5

M: Hi, Linda. Could you help me do some office work? I've fired my secretary.

W: OK. But why did you fire her?

M: She always can't finish typing the letters in time.

Text 6

M: Hello, Kate. Have you been to the new sports center yet?

W: Not yet. Where is it?

M: On Mill Road, near Stone Street, behind Santa Station.

W: What about it?

M: It's wonderful. You can do a lot of sports there. I played table tennis last Saturday, and watched a basketball match.

W: What about the swimming pool?

M: It's very good. Would you like to go there with me next week?

W: Good idea. Every day is OK except Monday.

M: Well. Why not go there on Saturday? Then we can stay for a long time.

W: OK. See you.

Text 7

M: Hi, is that Sara?

W: Speaking.

M: This is Tom. Sorry to bother you at supper time.

W: Not at all.

M: My little girl Maria has a high fever. We're taking her to hospital in a short time.

W: I'm sorry to hear that. Is there anything I can do for you?

M: Do you mind taking care of my son Ken? We can't take him along.

W: OK. Can I bring him to my house?

M: Thank you. But he hasn't finished his dinner yet.

W: No problem. He can have dinner with us, and then, my son will play games with him.

M: I really appreciate your help.

Text 8

M: Hi, Lily. Would you like to go to the cinema with me tonight?

W: Sorry, I can't.

M: Oh, you don't look very well. What's wrong?

W: My boss told me not to go to work again.

M: Why?

W: I don't know. I was very sad and surprised when I heard that.

M: Did you often get to work late?

W: Yes, I did.

M: Did you work hard?

W: Well, it's hard to say.

M: Are you good at using a computer?

W: No, I don't know how to use one.

M: I think I know the reason. You didn't use your time well and don't learn new things.

W: Perhaps. But that is unfair.

M: Oh, I don't think that you caught the opportunity.

W: What I can do now?

M: You should consider finding a new job. You must work hard and learn new things all the time.

W: Yes, I will. Thank you.

W: Hello, this is South Airlines. May I help you?

M: Yes, please. Mrs. Dick booked a ticket for Flight No. 112 to New York at 9:00 tonight. I'm afraid it's difficult for her to take it at that time. Is there a later flight tonight?

W: Hold on, please. I'll check it. ...Yes, Mrs. Dick booked a ticket for Flight No. 112 to New York at 9:00 pm.

M: That's right. Please help me to call it off.

W: OK. And here's another flight, No. 211, at twenty to twelve. Is it OK?

M: That's fine. Please book a ticket for this one.

W: All right. Call off the ticket for Flight No. 112 and book one seat on Flight No. 211 to New York.

M: Flight No.211 to New York at twenty to twelve. That's perfect. Mrs. Dick will pick up the ticket at the airport herself.

W: Good. But please remember it must not be collected later than 11:10, and I need to check the ID card.

M: I'm sure she will do it by the time. I'll remind her. Thanks.

W: You are welcome.

Boys and girls, may I have your attention, please? Our school has decided that we are going to visit the West Hill Farm tomorrow. Everyone is required to take part in it and no absence is allowed. So all of us should be waiting at the school gate by 7:30 and we'll take a bus there together. As we'll go a long way, everyone is asked to wear strong sports shoes and bring enough food and water.

In the morning, we are going to visit the crop fields. And at noon, we will have our picnic in the forest by the river and then we will rest two hours there. In the afternoon, we will have a talk on how to grow crops given by an experienced farmer for two hours. Everyone is required to take notes carefully and we will write a report about this. We will get back at 5:00 in the afternoon. If you have any questions, please go to the Student Union after the meeting. That's all, thank you.
